

Numerology & Suits for Tarot

NUMEROLOGY

Odd numbers are Masculine

Even numbers are Feminine

ONE (Aces) – New beginnings or ideas, independent, original, possibilities

TWO – Decisions, potential, balancing or weighing. May indicate two people if there are an abundance of twos and 2 court cards in the reading.

THREE – Creation, social activity, power. May indicate group workings, birth, and success.

FOUR – Order, stability, completion, balance, proportion, success. Four is two 2's – there's more weight to what was set into motion.

FIVE – Change, conflict, unpredictability, challenges and being between decisions or two worlds

SIX – Harmony, balance, love, nurturing or grace. The power of 3 combined into two 3's – but 6 is an even number, suggests balance over the dynamism of the number 3

SEVEN – Testing time, evaluation, possibility, ideas, creativity, futuristic thinking, unique

EIGHT – Success, work, material wealth. Eights can be grinding, the infinity symbol that never ends. Energy must be channeled appropriately.

NINE – Completion, enlightenment, ending on the spiritual plane

TEN – This is an ending on the physical plane and new beginnings, rebirth ($1+0 = 1$)

THE SUITS

The suit of WANDS is represented by the element of FIRE, which pertains to career, work, energy, passion, ambition and goals (leaders, entrepreneurs)

The suit of CUPS is represented by the element of WATER, which pertains to relationships, feelings, emotions and intuition (artists, poets, mystics, healers)

The suit of SWORDS is represented by the element of AIR, which pertains to the mind, intellect, communication, plans and adversity (scientists, lawyers, teachers, military)

The suit of PENTACLES is represented by the element of EARTH, which pertains to money, finances, the body, health and anything in the physical realm (businessmen, land developers, farmers)